

Grant County Journal

Vol. 110 No. 30

Ephrata, Washington

Saturday strategies

Above parents, friends and other participants watch the first round of the Waypoint Foundation's 11th annual Scholastic Chess Tournament on Saturday. Nearly 90 students from Ephrata, Soap Lake, Quincy and Moses Lake filled the gym at Parkway School vying for the top prize. Below left, Gabe Bevers reacts to a move by his opponent. Below right, Chris Phelps watches as Natasha Nelson makes a move in the second round. The tournament is organized every year in memory of Ryan Pugh. Photos by Lauren McLaughlin

As in

BY RA
of the

EPH
sheriff
ing a sh
that ma
als wou

Auth
3:14 p.
exchang
two mo
fishing
Ford C
Neppel

Polis
assailar 29, and
of Mos

Pear
shot wo
transport
maritan
where h
then fle
by dete
tigators
probabl
for his
is being ment.

So
ties bel
shooting
McCom
Lake ne

"Evi
sustain sheriff's stateme
worried

Ma cle

By RA
Associ

OLY
The Sen
a meas
Washin
materni
tive abo

Sen
chambe
publica
with m
measure
where